Republication Terms

It is a condition of the Australian Wool Exchange Limited supplying information services to you that you agree to the full AWEX Terms and Conditions. These can be found in full on the AWEX website at www.awex.com.au

In particular, subscribers should take note of 2.9 and 2.10 which refer to republication of AWEX information and state:

2.9 You, and any related body corporate, may:

(a) use and copy the information supplied with the Services; and

(b) resupply the information supplied with the Services (either in whole or in part) to one or more other third persons, but only if you have:

(i) received written permission from AWEX to do so, including permission to use any trademarks owned by or licensed to AWEX; and

(ii) paid any applicable resupply price, so long as no more than the maximum number of users approved by AWEX in writing receive or access the information.

(iii) observed the applicable publication embargo period set out in the AWEX Subscriptions Price Schedule.

2.10 If you resupply any information supplied with the Services (either in whole or in part), you must:

(a) credit AWEX as the source of that information; and

(b) indemnify AWEX for all losses, damages, expenses and costs incurred by AWEX as a result of any claim by any person against AWEX arising out of that resupply (except a claim caused directly by a breach by AWEX of this Contract).

When can I republish AWEX information?

AWEX will permit republication of information free-of-charge after the following embargo periods:

- Members: 24 hours (after report release)*
- Non-members: 48 hours (after report release)*

Subscribers wishing to publish within the embargo period will be subject to a republication fee.

What does this apply to?

This applies to the republication of AWEX information via electronic means, including, but not limited to:

- Public websites*
- Private websites (secured behind a login)*
- Email*
- Facsimile*

Fees are not applicable where republication is within a single company and where the circulation does not exceed 10 staff (the principle of fair and reasonable use applies).

Do I need to credit AWEX as the source?

In all circumstances AWEX requires standard acknowledgment practices:

- The source is to be credited as "AWEX";*
- The Eastern Market Indicator is to be referred to as the "AWEX-EMI" or "AWEX Eastern Market Indicator".*

Who do I contact for more information?

Further information can be obtained by emailing subscriptions@awex.com.au
